Chapter One: The Nursery<sup>①</sup>

Wendy, John and Michael Darling live in a lovely house in London. They have got a big, sunny nursery. There are colourful pictures and a big clock on the wall. There are toys here and there. The Darlings are a happy family. Mr Darling and Mrs Darling love their children very much. Wendy is the first child, John is the second and Michael is the third.

The children's nanny<sup>②</sup> is called Nana and she is a big Newfoundland dog! Her kennel is in the nursery and she is a wonderful nanny. She loves the children and the children love her.

One evening Mr and Mrs Darling want to go to a dinner party. They have their best clothes on.

"Nana, it's time to put the children to bed," says Mrs Darling.

Nana goes to the bathroom. She turns on the hot water for Michael's bath. She puts her paw in the water to check the temperature. It's perfect!

"I don't want to have a bath! " says little Michael.

But Nana is a firm<sup>③</sup> nanny and Michael has his bath.

Then Nana gives the children their pyjamas<sup>④</sup>. Now they are ready for bed.

Mrs Darling comes into the nursery and smiles. "Good work, Nana! I see the children are ready for bed. " Nana wags<sup>⑤</sup> her big tail.

Suddenly there is a noise. Mrs Darling sees a young boy outside the nursery window. She is very surprised. Nana barks<sup>⑥</sup> and shuts the window quickly. The boy's shadow falls on the floor. The young boy flies away.

The children are in bed. Mr Darling takes Nana to the garden. Then he goes to the sitting room and waits for Mrs Darling. Mrs Darling sings to the children and kisses them. She is a perfect mother. ## Chapter Two: The Shadow

The children are sleeping and dreaming. Suddenly the window opens. A small ball of light enters the nursery and flies around. It is a lovely fairy called Tinker Bell. She is looking for something. After a moment a young boy enters the nursery and says, "Tink, where are you? Please find my shadow."

Tinker Bell finds his shadow in the drawer and gives it to him. "Now I can stick the shadow to my feet with some soap," he thinks. He tries and tries again, but he can't. He is very confused<sup>①</sup> and starts crying.

Wendy wakes up and sees the boy but she is not afraid. His clothes are made of leaves. "Little boy, why are you crying?" Wendy asks.

The boy takes off<sup>②</sup> his cap<sup>③</sup> and asks, "What's your name?"

"Wendy Moira Angela Darling. What's yours?"

"Peter Pan."

"Is that all?"

"Yes !" says Peter. Then he thinks, "My name is very, very short."

Wendy looks at his shadow and asks, "Can I help you with your shadow?"

"Yes, please!" says Peter.

Wendy gets her sewing basket and sews on<sup>④</sup> Peter's shadow.

After a few minutes she says, "Finished! Now you have your shadow again."

Peter looks at the floor and sees his shadow.

He is very happy and dances around the room.

"I don't know, but I am young. I don't want to grow up. I always want to be a boy and have fun."

Peter looks around the room for his fairy. He hears a noise and looks in a drawer. Tinker Bell flies out. Wendy is delighted<sup>①</sup> to see a fairy, but Tinker Bell is afraid. She hides behind the big clock.

"Where do you live, Peter?" asks Wendy.

"I live in Neverland with the Lost Boys," says Peter.

"Neverland? The Lost Boys? who are they?" asks Wendy.

"The Lost Boys<sup>②</sup> haven't got a mother or father. They are alone in the world and they live in Neverland. I am their Captain. In Neverland we fight the pirates. We also swim in the lagoon<sup>③</sup> with the beautiful mermaids. Fairies live in the trees and the forest. The fairies are my friends," says Peter.

"Oh, what fun!" says Wendy.

"I must go back now. I must tell the Lost Boys a story. They love stories," says Peter.

"Look, that's Neverland," says Peter.

"Neverland!" say the children.

In Neverland the Lost Boys live in the forest in a secret underground<sup>①</sup> home. There are six Lost Boys: Slightly Soiled, Tootles, Nibs, Curly and the Twins. They are waiting for Peter.

Suddenly they hear the voices of the pirates. Nibs is very brave<sup>②</sup>. He goes out, hides behind a tree and looks around him. He sees the horrible pirates. They are walking in the forest. They are big and ugly<sup>③</sup>. Their pirate ship is the Jolly Roger.

The pirates' captain is James Hook. He is a cruel pirate and a very bad man. He's got black eyes, black hair and a black beard. He hates Peter Pan. He's only got one arm: The other is a hook! In the past Peter Pan cut<sup>④</sup> off Captain Hook's right arm during a fight. A crocodile<sup>⑤</sup> ate<sup>⑥</sup> the arm. Now the crocodile follows Captain Hook everywhere because he wants to eat him. The crocodile has an alarm clock in its stomach! Captain Hook can always hear it.

"I know the Lost Boys live in this forest. We must find them and Peter Pan!" says Captain Hook.

She loves Peter Pan. Tinker Bell and Wendy love him too. The Indians go away and the Lost Boys return to play in the forest.

Then Nibs looks at the sky and says, "Look, there is a lovely white bird in the sky."

"Is it really a bird?" the Lost Boys ask.

Tinker Bell says, "Yes, yes, it's a bird. It's a Wendy bird. You must shoot it!"

Sometimes Tink is a bad fairy. She knows it is Wendy, but she doesn't like her. Nibs takes his bow and arrow and shoots Wendy. Poor Wendy falls to the ground. The Lost Boys see Wendy and say, "She's not a bird! She's a lovely girl."

Peter flies down with John and Michael and asks, "Where is Wendy?"

Tootles says, "Here she is."

Peter goes over to her and asks, "Wendy, are you all right?"

Wendy slowly opens her eyes and smiles.

"Yes, but I'm very tired," she says.

The Lost Boys are sorry. They decide to build her a little house. When the house is ready. Wendy says, "What a lovely little house! Thank you."

Peter wants to save Tiger Lily and thinks of something intelligent. He imitates<sup>③</sup> Captain Hook's voice and says, "Cut the ropes and let her go! Do as I say, you idiots<sup>④</sup>! Let her go!" The two pirates are amazed<sup>⑤</sup>.

"Can you hear Hook's voice?" asks Smee,

"Yes, but what can we do?" asks Starkey.

"The sea is rising and we are in great danger here. We must leave this rock," says Peter.

"Oh, Peter, I am very tired and I cannot swim or fly."

He sees a big kite<sup>④</sup> with a long tail. It is flying slowly over the lagoon. He takes the tail of the kite and says, "Wendy, hold on to<sup>⑤</sup> this tail and fly away with the kite." Wendy flies away.

"Walk the plank?" asks John.

"Yes! First you walk the plank and then you fall into the sea with the crocodile. It will eat you! Ha, ha!" laughs Hook, "But I can save two of you. I want two young pirates. Who wants to be a pirate?"

Track 1: Let's meet Sir James M Barrie(1860-1937)

Hello, I'm James Barrie!

I come from Scotland.

I'm a writer and I love writing books and plays for the theatre.

I have a big St Bernard dog called Porthos. I often take him to Kensington Gardens in London. Here I meet many children and tell them stories.

My first novel is The Little Minister (1891).

My play Peter Pan (1904) is a big success. Children and adults like this play a lot.

(Sir James M Barrie dies in London in 1937.)

J M Barrie and Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children

J M Barrie likes children very much. He wants children to be well and happy.

In London there is a hospital for sick children called Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children. Barrie often visits this hospital because he wants to help the children.

Barrie is a very generous<sup>①</sup> man. In 1929 he makes an important decision: Every time Peter Pan is performed in a theatre, the money from the play goes to Great Ormond Street Hospital for Children. This money helps the children, the hospital, the doctors and the nurses.

Peter Pan is performed once a year at the hospital. This is a very happy event for the sick children.

Who are fairies?

Some people say that:

- fairies are little people with wings
- they live in the forest, in trees, in flowers and in gardens
- there are good and bad fairies
- fairies are magic
- they can do good things and bad things

Fairies are part of the British, Irish, northern European, Scandinavian and old Celtic cultures. There are many stories about fairies. Some are called fairy tales.

In Peter Pan Tinker Bell is Peter's fairy. The fairies of Neverland are Peter's friends. In Pinocchio there is a kind fairy called the Blue Fairy. She always helps Pinocchio. In Cinderella a fairy godmother is Cinderella's good friend.

There are fairies in one of William Shakespeare's plays too.

In A Midsummer Night's Dream Oberon and Titania are the king and queen of the fairies.

American and British children believe in the tooth fairy.

When a child's tooth falls out he / she puts it under the pillow<sup>①</sup> and goes to sleep. During the night the tooth fairy takes the tooth and puts money or sweets under the pillow. The next morning the child finds the surprise and is very happy.

Dr W Evans-Wentz is an expert<sup>②</sup> of Celtic myths<sup>③</sup>. He says, "Fairies exist but they are invisible<sup>④</sup>."
